Summer Readers Kept Library Jumping

The Summer Reading Club has kept the Paul Pratt Memorial Library especially busy this season. As of this writing, over 60 children have earned a free book, courtesy of the Friends of the Cohasset Library, while another 30 children have earned reading certificates.

The Summer Reading Club is an annual tradition, running from June 10 to Sept. 15. Those young people who read 10 books from the library are awarded a Reading Certificate and those who read 20 books are given a free paperback book that they may choose from a special collection purchased especially for the Reading Club.

Reading cards to keep track of titles read at the child's own reading level may be picked up at the library and must be endorsed by a parent.

There is still nearly a month before the Sept. 15 deadline, so let's read kids! The Friends of the Cohasset Library would like to give a free paperback to every child in Cohasset!
